THE HAIR! THE HAIR!!

NO better evidence is wanting to allow the superiority of the Genuine Buffalo Oil, over other preparations, than that a number of Druggists are endeavoring to imitate it and foisting their miserable imitations on the public for genuine. Read advertisement. Beware of Pedlers.

The Genuine Buffalo Oil is fast taking place of all other articles to promote the growth, soften and beautify the Hair; its use gives it a softness that no other article does, and causes it to curl beautifully by free use it will darken and give the hair a satin gloss, it is highly perfumed and gives perfect satisfaction to all who have given it a trial. You will observe the signature of the proprietor: 'William Brown,' also 'Buffalo Oil,' imprinted on the bottle. In consequence of a counterfeit which has recently appeared and is now for sale, I have been persuaded to obtain a new label engraved on copper, for which I have secured a copy-right, entered according to an act of Congress in the Clerk Office of the District Court of Massachusetts. Important Caution.

It is a singular fact and one much to be regretted, that valuable medicines, as soon as they become popular, and have received the test and approval of a discriminating public, are sure to be counterfeited, and thus a bad and spurious article is immediately palmed upon the unsuspecting as the genuine. This has been notoriously the case with all popular tried and truly valuable medicines for years past, and will probably continue to be the case for years to come.

The base and contemptible counterfeiter in this way meanly takes advantage of all the efforts and the advertising used by the proprietors of the genuine article to get their medicines into use and deserved popularity. It is therefore not less the duty than it contributes to the safety of every honest individual in the community, to expose, frown down and forever after distrust all heartless ingrates, who thus irresponsibly trifle with health and life

THEREFORE TAKE NOTICE.

There is a person by the name of J. B. ROCHEFORT, now engaged in selling a Pill done up in boxes in exact and perfect imitation of the genuine INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS, with the omission of only one word on the boxes viz. WRIGHT. The Pills sold by this Rochefort are evidently intended as a fraud and imposition upon the community or they would not have been done up in such exact imitation of the genuine. This person is tall and blustering, with a great Theatrical swagger. He was recently known as a very poor player in Baltimore, under the musical cognomen of Jim Brown, and is about twenty five years of age. It is almost beyond a doubt that he is supplied with the Pills from a Druggist firm in this city, who have been heretofore notoriously connected with counterfeit medicines. As soon as proof is obtained, the fountain head of this nefarious business will be exposed, that the community may shun them as they would a serpent.

IN THE MEAN TIME THE PUBLIC ARE CAUTIONED

against buying WRIGHT'S Indian Vegetable Pills of any one who does not exhibit a certificate of agency signed by the agent for the New England States, and bearing date since January, 1840. Also take particular notice that the following wording is on the Boxes:

WRIGHT'S Indian Vegetable Pills (Indian Purgative) of the North American College of Health.

THE INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS are a certain cure for disease in its every variety of form, because they thoroughly cleanse the stomach and bowels, induce a proper discharge by the lungs, skin and kidney, and stimulate the blood to purify itself. In other words they open all the natural drains, and leave NATURE (THE GRAND PHYSICIAN) free to drive disease from the body. The above outlets, or drains, are the common sewers of the body, through which all morbid and corrupt humors (the cause of disease) are carried off and so long as they are all kept open, and discharge freely their allotted portions of impurity the body will continue in health; but when from eating improper food, breathing impure air, sudden transitions from heat to cold, overexaustion, or any other cause, the bowels become costive, the pores of the skin become closed or the kidneys fail to perform their functions properly, the impurities which should be drained from the body by those outlets will be retained, and continue to accumulate until the body becomes literally loaded with disease.

The Pills may be taken at all times and under all circumstances, with perfect safety. They suit all complaints and all ages, and are as natural to the human constitution as food; consequently they can never injure even the most delicate. Like our food they are digestible; therefore they enter into the circulation, and impart an energy to the blood which enables it to flow with freedom quite to the extremities, and consequently to keep the pores of the skin open. They are true and perfect purifiers of the blood; because they drain all corrupt humors from that life giving fluid. They impart strength and vigor to the whole system, and their effects are always beneficial; because they only remove those humors which are opposed to health. They aid and improve digestion, and sound sleep follows their use; because they cleanse the stomach and bowels of their slimy humors which not only irritate and excite the nervous system, but parylize and weaken the digestive organs. In short they possess all the good properties that can be claimed for any medicine; and what is very remarkable, it is utterly impossible to use them without benefit.

Price 25 cents per Box, with full Directions.

Office at Bangor.

THIS Office is now in successful operation, having extended its business into sixty towns in the Counties of Penobscot, Waldo, Hancock, Washington, Piscataquis, Somerset, Franklin and Aroostook; and now presents its claims to the people of the whole Eastern section of the State, in the confidence that its superior location, its success thus far, and the determination of its Officers to render it in every respect worthy their patronage, will ensure it to become ultimately the largest office in the State. The superiority of large Mutual Offices over Stock Offices must be plain to every man in the community. Its Policies issued for six years, and allexpired

COURT CALENDAR.

James B Fiske and al vs. Joshua W Carr. --Trespass against an officer for taking and carrying away 20 Bank shares and certain articles of furniture, attached on a writ in favor of Lafayette Bank vs C. H. Hammond and E. T. Coolidge. The furniture was mortgaged to Hammond by Coolidge as security for the debt on which it was attached. Plaintiffs are assignees of Hammond, who transferred to them the property, but no transfer of the Bank stock had been entered on the books of the Bank at the time of the attachment. The furniture had been sold by consent of parties since this suit, to abide the legal rights of the parties. Defendant's Counsel contended that the furniture was not assignable by Hammond, and trespass would not lie for attaching the Bank stock.

Weston C J. gave the opinion. The statute of 1838 requires the transfer of Bank stock to be entered on books of the Bank to constitute a valid assignment, and that therefore the officer was not liable for the attachment of the stock. Hammond had an assignable interest in the furniture, but not an attachable one, and that the action would lie for its value, but by the agreement of parties it must be applied on the demand due the bank. Verdict amended accordingly.

Hobbs for plaintiffs. M. L. Appleton for defendant.

Robinson vs Gilman. This was assumpsit for goods sold and delivered. After goods were sold one of the plaintiff's procured a change of his name by Legislature of Massachusetts, so that there was an apparent variance between the writ and the account. The principal question raised was what is competent to authenticate a statute of another State.

Emery J. gave the opinion in favor of plff, and stated that a copy certified by the Secretary of State, authenticated by his commission with the seal of the State, is competent proof of a foreign statute.

John Appleton for plaintiff. Gilman for defendant.

Vickery vs. Sherburne. Replevin originally brought before Municipal Court for the city of Bangor, for a quantity of juniper knees. Defendant pleaded non cepit in Municipal Court. Judgment for defendant. plff appealed. The District Court ruled that the general issue admitted property in plaintiff, and the only question put in issue was the taking.

Emery J. gave the opinion in favor of the plaintiff that notwithstanding the statute abolishing special pleading, the Court required a brief statement, when by the old rules of pleading a special plea was necessary.

McCrillis for plaintiff. J. A. and H. V. Poor for defendant.

Leonard March (executor) vs. Jacob Garland. --This is an action against defendant as endorser of a bill of exchange drawn by S. & G. Turner, and accepted by Nath'l Fifield. Bill was dated at Bangor, in 1836, payable at Suffolk Bank, Boston. At the time of its date defendant lived in Bangor, but before it fell due had removed to China. It was contended by defendants counsel that this notice was not sufficient, but should have been sent to him direct from Boston.

The Court below, Perham J. ruled in favor of plaintiff, and it came up on exceptions.

Argued at this Term, and continued nisi.

J. A. Poor for plaintiff. John Godfrey for defendant.

Henry Warren vs Philip Coombs.

Same vs. Philip H. Coombs. Assumpsit against defendants upon certain bills of exchange. Usury was pleaded. Plaintiff contended that he was agent or broker for defendants, and hired the money for them, at the current rate of interest at the time 5 per cent. per month.

Argued at this Term, and continued nisi.

Rogers for plaintiff. Hollis for defendant.

Isaac Farrar vs. Allen Gilman. Assumpsit on a note payable to the Penobscot Bank or order, and endorsed "John Wyman, Cashier." No authority was shown for Wyman's endorsement, and the question was whether a legal transfer was shown, sufficient to maintain the action.

Argued at this Term, and continued nisi.

Rowson for plaintiff. Gilman for defendant.

B. Brown vs. L. Watson and als. Debt on poor debtors bond. facts agreed.

Argued at this Term, and continued nisi.

J. A. Poor for plaintiff. Blake for deft.

State of Maine vs. Alden C. Handy. Deft. was indicted for forging a receipt for money, for $48. Deft. was debtor in an execution bond to Elijah Wood, Jr., which bond was in the hands of C. C. Cushman, Esq for collection. Deft. paid Wood $20, and he gave him a receipt for $48, and ... der to Cushman to allow it on the bond, and then added "he has worked for me 1 day, making $21 in all."

Handy produced to Cushman the receipt, altered by making $20 into $48, and $21 into $49.

Handy was convicted on trial in 1840, and various exceptions were taken to the indictment.

Weston C. J. gave the opinion of the Court. The indictment charges defendant with forging a receipt for $48, and it is fatally deceptive, because the receipt produced is for $49.

Exceptions sustained. deft discharged.

Goodenow, Attorney General, for State--G. F. Shepley for deft.

A committee of twenty four, composed of some of the most learned and discriminating members of the different professions in Boston, who were chosen at a public meeting for the purpose of testing the truth or absurdity of Animal Magnetism as exhibited by Dr. Collyer, held their fifth session on Tuesday, and after witnessing some further experiments, adopted the following resolution by a unanimous vote:

"Resolved, That while this Committee refrain from expressing any decisive opinion as to the science or principles of Animal Magnetism, they freely confess that in the experiments of Dr Collyer certain appearances have been presented, which cannot be explained on the supposition of collusion, or by a reference to any physiological principles known to them."

Capt. Adams of Portland, an old and experienced sea captain, is of the opinion from the description given, that the wreck fallen in with by the North Bend, cannot be that of the President, but thinks it must be the same hulk which he fell in with in December last, in his passage from Liverpool to Havana.

A Convention of the Whigs of York county on the 5th inst. at Alfred, the following gentlemen were nominated for county officers: Abraham L. Came, John Hubbard, Joseph Frost, for Senators, John L. Grant, for Register of Deeds, David Otis, for County Treasurer.

The Legislature of New Hampshire adjourned at six o'clock on the morning of Saturday last, after a session of thirty two days. They passed in that time sixty four acts and thirty one resolves.

Charity does not begin at home in the family to which the boy below noticed belongs. The fact is from the St Louis Argus:

"Miss Brown, I wish you'd sew my trowsers, so they won't keep coming down; the boys keep plaguing me." "Why don't you get your mother to do it for you Jemmy?" "Oh, she can't; she's gone to the Sewing Circle." A fact.

Houston, Texas which was settled five years ago, has now four thousand inhabitants; and within the same period, there have been six thousand burials! An average of nearly four every day in the year. A very healthy climate no doubt.

The campaign of 1841 is now fairly opened. The opposing candidates of the two parties for Governor are before the people, and their principles, also, are well understood throughout the State. In Edward Kent, we have a respectable representative of thorough-going federalism, as he has derived it through a line of federal ancestors, and practised on it during the past years of his own life. [Eastern Argus.

As to Gov. Kent's "line of Federal ancestors" we cannot say we know much about it. We had the pleasure of seeing the Governor last week, but did not think to inquire about his ancestry. We think it is evident the race is not deteriorating. The Governor himself is certainly a pretty tall and portly specimen of a "live Yankee," though we must say we never discovered any remarkably courtly graces about him. Perhaps it is because we are from the backwoods and do not know how to appreciate such things. The most that we have ever learned of his 'line of federal ancestors' is that the Governor's father was a very respectable mechanic in New Hampshire, a Whig of the Revolution. He was elevated to various public stations, the duties of which he performed with scrupulous fidelity and to general acceptance. By his industry he acquired property enough to give his sons a much better education than he had himself. He was, we believe, a federalist of the school of George Washington, and in this respect he agreed entirely with the respected father of the Editor of the Eastern Argus.

Now we neither contend nor admit that the parentage of a candidate for public favor is matter of consequence enough to be a subject of public discussion. We judge of men by their own merits, their own principles, and not by those of their fathers. If they have received great assistance from parents, and been taught the best principles, then their own merit should be expected as a matter of course; but if they have by native energy overcome the obstacles of neglected education or bad parental example, their merit is the greater.

We all understand what the loco foco papers mean by federalism. They are generally edited by young dandy lawyers, with gold watch guards, high-heeled boots and long hair; they have imbibed the Van Buren notion that "all is fair in politics," that the people know but little, and that nothing more is required to lead them like a flock of sheep, than to keep crying "federalism," "aristocracy," "bank party," "Hartford Convention," &c., and to adopt the most ultra radical and mischievous doctrines that come up and can be used by artful demagogues to tickle the popular fancy. We have had this system in operation for twelve years past, until it has at last brought the country to the verge of ruin. We shall have to labor a long time under heavy debts, and a load of taxes to pay for this--foolery. The people at last became tired of it, and by a strong effort threw the load off their shoulders last fall, as Sinbad the Sailor threw from his shoulders the "old man of the sea." But the "old man of the sea" is struggling very hard to get on again. He is very cunning, and tells all sorts of plausible stories. We shall see whether he succeeds. It is our opinion that he "can't come it" until the people have had time to forget how he rode them before.

Gov. Kent is himself both a theoretical and practical democrat, in the true sense of the word. Examine his messages, look at his official communications, scrutinize his measures. The true democratic principle of equal and universal liberty pervades them all. And his practice corresponds with his precepts. His aim is to elevate the humble. No man is a more zealous advocate of popular education. He does not attempt to wheedle the poor and the ignorant to get their votes, but he labors to promote their welfare, and the prosperity of the whole. This is his democracy, and it is the genuine article, and not the tinselled counterfeit of the Bentonian loco foco and Fanny Wright school. [Kennebec Journal.

The Progress of the Corse.--The body of Gen. Harrison has, ere this, reached its last resting place. The funeral cortege reached Pittsburg, Pa., on the 2d instant. The Advocate gives a brief account of the mournful ceremonies. Between one and two o'clock P M, the firing of cannon, by the Garrison, announced the arrival of the boat at Sharp's Island, miles above the city, which announcement answered by cannon from one of the hills, summoning the citizens of Pittsburg and Allegheny to form in a procession at the Canal Basin. In a few minutes more the streets were thronged with the multitude, eager to press forward and show their mournful regards for the beloved deceased.

The procession was soon in motion, and moved slowly through the principal streets of the city, to solemn and impressive music, amid the roar of artillery and the tolling of bells. Most of the military companies turned out, together with civic bodies, clergymen, and citizens. Every window was filled with women and children, while the streets were thronged with a dense concourse of people. The population appeared to have come forth en masse. The body of General Harrison was finally placed on board the Steamboat Raritan, which left immediately for North Bend.

A Lawyer "Humbugged." It takes the women. We know not where the following originated, but copy it as an anecdote as good as any of the famous bonmots of Curran:

An intelligent female witness having been much perplexed by a barrister in a long cross-examination, happened in replying to use the term humbug. "Madam," said the man of law, "you must not talk unintelligibly; what is the court and jury to understand by the word humbug?" The lady hesitated. "I must insist, madam, said the barrister, anticipating a victory, that you proceed no further until you state plainly and openly what you mean by humbug." "Why then, sir, returned the lady I don't know how better to explain my meaning than by saying, if I met a company of persons who were strangers to you, and should tell them that when they saw you they might prepare to meet a remarkably handsome, genteel, agreeable looking man that would be a humbug."

Critical Situation. The steamboat Clarksville, from New Orleans to Nashville, was entirely lost on the 17th ult. by running on a snag in the Mississippi. The deck passengers jumped overboard, seizing hold of spars and other objects which presented themselves. An old man and a tin pedlar, and the deck passengers perished. The cabin parts from the hull, and floated off with the numerous deck passengers grouped on the hurricane deck, and left in a most critical situation, fearing momentarily that it might capsize. The ladies on board had taken refuge in the wheel house, which parted from the cabin and left them to float down the river, until a boat from the shore came to their rescue.

From the Buffalo Republican.

THE PRINTER'S SONG.

Print, comrades, print; a noble task
Is the one we gaily ply;
'Tis ours to tell to all who ask,
The wonders of earth and sky;
We catch the thought all glowing warm,
As it leaves the Student's brain;
And place the stamp of enduring form
On the Poet's airy strain.
Then let us sing, as we nimbly fling
The slender letters round;
A glorious thing is our laboring,
Oh where may its like be found?

Print, comrades, print; the fairest thought
Ever limned in Painter's dream,
The rarest form e'er sculptor wrought,
By the light of beauty's gleam,
Though lovely, may not match the power
Which our proud Art can claim;
That inhabits poet with proud thought,
And its breath the voice of fame.
Then let us sing as we nimbly fling
The slender letters round;
A glorious thing, is our laboring,
Oh where may its like be found?

Print, comrades, print; God hath ordained
That man by his toil should live;
Then spurn the charge, that we disdained
The labor that God would give!
We envy not the sin's of ease,
Nor the lord in princly hall;
But bow before the wise decrees
In kindness meant for us all.
Then let us sing, as we nimbly fling
The slender letters round;
A glorious thing is our laboring,
Oh where may its like be found?

THE WEDDED LIFE.

BY MRS. SANFORD.

The first year of a young woman's wedded life is generally the most unhappy, and the most trying one she experiences. However intensely we may have studied the character of our affianced, however well we may have imagined we know it in all its narrow windings, still shall we find, when we become wives, that we have yet something to learn. By actions are the affections on either side shown, and although it is in the power and nature of a woman to manifest her devotedness by a thousand little attentions, she must not repine if she recieves not the like.

The feelings of the other sex are not so soft and exquisite as those of our own; if they were, we might possibly be happier, and we may for a moment wish they were so, but we shall restrain so selfish a desire, if we reflect how much more unfit they would be by such a constitution to bear the crosses and buffetings of the world.

It is said that lovers quarrels are but the renewal of love, but it is not so in truth. Continued differences and bickerings will undermine the strongest affection, and a wife cannot be too careful to avoid disputes upon the most trivial subject; indeed, it is the every day occurrences which try the love and temper of the married life; great occasions for quarrels seldom occur. Every wish, every prejudice must meet with attention, and the first thought of a woman should be the pleasing and providing for her husband. It is impossible to enumerate all the little incidents which may annoy married men, or the little unobtrusive pleasure which it is in the power of a wife to give; but throughout her life in employments, she must bear his pleasures on her mind. She must act for him in preference to herself, and she will be amply rewarded by witnessing his delight in her and his home. To a woman who loves her husband with all the devotedness of her nature, this will be a pleasure, not a task; and to make him happy, she will never grudge any sacrifice of self.

The greatest misery a woman can experience is the changed heart, and alienated affections of her husband, but even in that painful case she must not upbraid; she must bear with patience and fortitude her great disappointment, she must return good for evil to the utmost, and her consolation will be the consciousness that her trials have not their rise or continuance in any decline of affection or duty on her part.

Some women in order to win back the husband's wandering love have recourse to attempts to arouse his jealousy; but they are much mistaken in pursuing such a course. A man, however, debased his conduct, never entirely forgets the love he once bore to the bride of his youth, they are those who feelings of tenderness for her will retain with [illegible]; to reap the benefits of such sentiments, the injured, forgiving wife must still be enshrined in the purity of former times. A husband will excuse his fault to himself, and in the meantime stand exonerated to the world, if his wife relax in no propriety of behaviour, but on the contrary, the gentle virtues, unconquering patience, and the unobtrusive rectitude of the woman he injures, will deeply strike to his heart, and do much to win back to his former love, and to the observance of the vows he breathed at the altar, where his heart was devoted to the being from whom it has wandered. A kind look, affectionate expression half uttered, must bring his wife to his side, and she must with smiles of tenderness encourage the returning affection, carefully avoiding all reference to her sufferings or the cause of them.

This will not be difficult for virtuous woman to perform. One love which before marriage is constrained by the modesty and reserve natural to our sex, increases in fervency and depth afterwards, it enables us to bear untelt the world's storm; all is swallowed up in it. An affectionate wife clings to her husband through poverty and riches; and the more the world recedes from him, more firmly will she stand by him; she will be his friend when no other come near him; she will be his comforter when all earthly comforts have slid from him. Her devotedness will be his rock, when he has no other support; she will smile at the frowns of the world; she will not heed its censures; he is her all, and in love are all other things to be forgotten or absorbed.

Judge Noah. The following from the N Y Courier, is characteristic of M M. Noah, better known probably to our readers as an editor than a Judge:

"In the Court of Special Sessions yesterday, a man named John Fisher, was brought up for some trifling offence for trial. His wife, a beautiful young woman, not more than seventeen years of age, appeared at the bar with an infant in her arms, an advocate for her husband. She was dressed plainly and by no means in the height of fashion. Her presence, her child and her tears, had a softening effect on the court. Her husband was discharged and left the room. The young wife lingered behind to bestow a few sentences of gratitude. Judge Noah spoke to her a few kind words and inquired of her 'are you really so destitute as you appear, and is that your child?' 'As there is a God,' replied the poor creature, 'it is all true. Since my husband has been in prison for triflingly offending against the dignity of our landlord, the latter, the inhuman monster, has turned me and my child out of doors, and retains for his rent as he claims, our all, little all. For four days I have subsisted in the open air, depending wholly upon the cold charity of such as chanced to pass by betimes.'

This was more than Judge Noah could stand; with his face concealed from the gaze of the spectators, to conceal an evident emotion, he beckoned to the poor woman, who, as she approached him, he slipped into her hand a five dollar note, which he drew from his pocket, and wishing her better success and happiness hereafter. She left the Court with an altered countenance. The Judge adjusted his spectacles, called the Court to order, and the business proceeded."

The Vermont Whig State Convention have nominated Col. Charles Paine for Governor, Hon. W. R. Ranney for Lieut. Governor, and Hon. John Spaulding, for Treasurer.

Mr. E. C. Torrey, of Boston, will deliver his last Lecture THIS EVENING at the City Hall.

Adams's Venuis Water.

THE true Remedy the Sovereign Restorative of the grand producer!!! The subscriber informs the public that after FOURTEEN YEARS of study ten of which have been years of immense labor and difficulty he has discovered the only true remedy against the loss the sovereign restorative in case of a defficiency and the grand producer of that most beautiful ornament of the human form divine "THE HAIR!"

That it may be known that this Venuis Water is an invaluable article, I will state that in the first year of my labors upon it its application to the head for two consecutive seasons was necessary in order to establish a good growth of hair but one only one season is required so successful have been my improvements upon it. And I have the proud satisfaction of knowing that in the City of Bangor alone three hundred and forty two which were once bald can, by the heavy growth of hair upon them bear witness to the wonderful effects which this Venuis Water has produced within eighteen months!

I will add a few, of the certificates almost innumerable which have been given me by individuals who have derived benefit from this Water.

Mr T D. ADAMS Having availed myself of the extraordinary benefits of your Venuis Water, I feel it my duty to the public, as well as to yourself, to submit for their perusal, a plain statement of the facts in my case I had been entirely bald for seven years and had lost my eye brows, during which time I tried the remedies of three physicians without any benefit

In reading over the advertisement of your celebrated Venuis Water I concluded to try it and now am the proprietor of a fine head of hair and a beautiful pair of eye brows

MISS ELIZA WORTHINGTON
Bangor, May 8 1841

This is to certify, that I have used Mr Adams' Venuis Water for baldness of the head and that it has restored me a good head of hair where before using it the hair was entirely gone. I also have used other medicines which have started the hair, but it would come out again But the Venuis Water has restored so that it is as strong and stronger than before I first lost it. And to all those who are troubled with baldness I would say be sure and call on Thomas D Adams and try it immediately and you will have your hair growing again forthwith ARTEMAS J. EGERY
Bangor, May 14 1841

This may certify, that for the last six months I have used T D Adams' Venus Water and have the satisfaction to say that the top of my head, which for a long time was bald, is now entirely covered with a good growth of hair
EDMUND HOLT.
Bangor, Februars 25 1841

I hereby certify that for the last two or three years my head has been bald and that during that period I have used a great number of applications recommended for their efficacy in restoring the hair, from which I have never received any benefit, some even having proved injurious, until the past summer, I made use of Thomas D Adams' Venuis Water, which has entirely exceeded my expectations and covered my head with a strong growth of hair HANNAH PALMER
Bangor, May 15, 1841

This may certify that the hair upon the top of my head being nearly gone and the remainder fast dropping off daily I was induced by Mr T D Adams to try his Venuis Water and during the last year he has made frequent applications of it to my head I have now a considerable growth of new hair produced, as I suppose by the use of his remedy E HARRIS
Bangor, Feb 3 1841

This may certify that I called on Mr T D Adams in May, 1836 I used his Venuis Water for three months and it has produced as much hair as I wish to have on my head
Bangor, Sept 1837 NANCY SMITH

This may certify that my head was entirely bald, and by the use of T D Adams' Venuis Water for three months my hair has been restored
Bangor, Feb 15, 1841 CALEB B HOLMES.

I have used Mr Adams's Venuis Water, for the growth of the hair for about six months, and am happy to say that it has answered every purpose in producing a good head of hair, and prevent the hair from coming out by combing
Bangor, Feb 8, 1841. MARY JONES.

This may certify that for the last six months I have used Adams' Venuis Water and have the satisfaction to say that the top of my head which for a long time was bald is now entirely covered with a good growth of hair
Bangor, Feb 12, 1841 WM FROST

This may certify that for the last five or six years the top of my head had been bald, but now is well covered with a good growth of hair I used the Venuis Water for four months
Bangor, Feb. 15, 1841. E. R WARREN

This certifies that I have used a preparation made by Mr Thos D Adams of this city to restore hair to the head, which has fallen off and having derived much benefit from it I would cheerfully recommend its use to others

As some are base enough to fill the empty bottles and their stuff, and thus deceive the unwary, and some have attempted an imitation of my Bitters in papers.

BE CAREFUL OF WHOM YOU PURCHASE!

In consequence of these attempts at imposition, I have, in consequence of these attempts at imposition, I have at great expense in having new directions and wrappers, and in future the Bitters in papers will be done up in a different style. See that the envelope has on it my name in full, "entered according to act of Congress, in the year 1840, by S. O. Richardson, M. D., in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of Massachusetts," and on the other side "Established at Stoneham, Reading, County of Middlesex, Massachusetts." The border around the inside directions, (which are printed on white tissue paper,) is an curiously engraved that the words "Dr. S. O. Richardson's Sherry Wine Bitters" present themselves in a thousand different forms. As a copy right has been granted me,

DR. SEARS' UNIVERSAL SANGUINARIAN OR BLOOD-ROOT PILLS.

THE pretence that any medicine is nearly an "infallible cure" for all diseases that flesh is heir to," whatever their character, is a flagrant imposition upon the public confidence, and a most wicked outrage upon the generous sympathy that suffering humanity justly demands of us. Yet the very frequency and boldness of these impious frauds so eminently cruel to the unfortunate, furnish solid ground for presenting the public a remedy that may be intelligently appreciated and relied upon. That powerful medicinal agent, the Blood Root, is the basis of the Universal Sanguinarian Pills, and all the materials are drawn from the Vegetable Kingdom the grand source of support to animal existence. But in the combination, the different ingredients are so blended and modified as to give the compound a remarkable advantage over the simples, and it is believed over all other medicines. When it is considered that nearly all diseases, chronic and acute, are connected with a disordered action of the stomach and bowels, and that in most instances, this is superinduced by disorder of the Bile or Gall, which is the natural physic of the system and when it is farther considered that these Pills act with singular power upon these [illegible] upon the blood and entire physical economy, sober reason must justify the assertion, that this valuable discovery furnishes a remedy of rare efficiency in all curable cases of disease; and this deduction of reason is abundantly corroborated by experience. This medicine harmonizes with the laws of life, inspires and strengthens nature, and works its wonders, by generously cheering her on to a triumphant conflict with the obnoxious agents of disease. It is offered for general use, and as a safe and most valuable family medicine. Safe, not because it does nothing, (like many contemptible nostrums of newspaper celebrity, which by occupying the place of efficient remedies, are often fatal) but safe, because it aids and co-operates with nature, instead of setting her aside and violently attempting to perform her work by dangerous foreign agency.

CONSUMPTION AND LIVER COMPLAINT.

BALSOM OF LIVERWORT

DR. TAYLOR'S BALSOM of LIVERWORT has been used successfully for eight years in the Cure of these Diseases. ☞ Remember! the original and genuine is made ONLY at 375 Bowery, New-York, ALL others are spurious and unauthorized.

CONSUMPTION & LIVER COMPLAINT.

As a general remedy for these diseases, I am fully satisfied from long experience, there is no medicine equal to Dr. Taylor's Balsom of Liverwort. Being purely vegetable, it can be used with the utmost safety by all persons in every condition. It cleanses the lungs by expectoration, relieves difficult breathing, and heals the chest. There can be no question, but this medicine is a certain cure for chronic coughs and colds. I have used it for four years in my practice, and always with success.

A. F. RODGERS, M. D.

☞ SPITTING OF BLOOD. This disease consists of a discharge of blood often frothy, from the mouth, brought up with walking and coughing, and is usually accompanied with difficulty of breathing and sore pain in the chest. Sometimes it is preceded by an oppression at the chest, a dry tickling cough and slight shooting pains. This disease is always more or less dangerous. The great dangers is that these symptoms may terminate in consumption, and immediate remedies can alone save this end. But Dr. Taylor's Balsom of Liverwort is a sure remedy, and to shew its unparalleled success, certificates of cures from 421 citizens, and many physicians, will be published in a few days.

☞ NERVOUS DISEASES AND WEAKNESS. Dr. Taylor's Balsom of Liverwort made at 375 Bowery, is assuredly an excellent remedy for these diseases. My wife has been more or less ill for ten years. She was extremely nervous and at times so weak that she could not attend to her domestic duties. By the use of this medicine, her strength is wholly restored, and she is as healthy as I can wish her to be. By [illegible] at Dr. Taylor's office.

CURE OF CONSUMPTION. Mrs Martin, a worthy member of my congregation, was taken ill some time since with a cold, pain in the breast and some difficulty of breathing, and in a few days thereafter she had a violent cough and violent pain in the sides, which no medicine would relieve. She continued in this way for a long time under the medical care of Dr. Rea, but finally became consumptive, and was evidently near the end of her earthly sufferings, when her brother persuaded her to try Dr. Taylor's Balsom of Liverwort. When she commenced this medicine it did not rest. In a agree with her for a few days, but by lessening the dose she found it answered admirably. It relieved her cough and her difficulty of breathing instanter, and we had the pleasure of witnessing her rapid recovery to health.

CONSUMPTION.

DR. ALLEN'S BALSAM of Horehound, Liverwort, and Pleurisy Root, FOR CONSUMPTION AND LIVER COMPLAINT, Colds, Coughs, Pitting of Blood, Catarrh, Asthma, Difficulty of Breathing, Pain in the Side, Palpitation of the Heart, Oppression and Soreness of the Chest, Pleurisy, Hectic Fever, Night Sweats, Difficult and Profuse Expectoration, and all affections of the Chest, Lungs and Liver.

The Horehound, Liverwort, and Pleurisy Root have for centuries been celebrated in the cure of diseases of the Lungs and Liver.

Dr. B. D. Allen, after a series of experiments, has been able to extract from these medical herbs a balsam, which exerts a most wonderful effect in curing Consumption and Liver Complaint, and all other diseases of the Lungs and Chest. So great has become the reputation of Dr. Allen's balsam, that it is now used in the New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore Hospitals, and in the private practice of our most eminent medical men.

For children laboring under inflammation of the Lungs, Colds, Coughs, Croup, Quinsy, and Sore Throat this Balsam is of great importance. The number of deaths among children from these diseases is truly alarming. If parents wish to save the lives of their children, and themselves much trouble anxiety and expense, let them procure Dr. B. D. Allen's Balsam, [illegible] cold, has any fever, cough, or hoarseness, give a teaspoonful of the medicine, and repeat it if necessary; even one teaspoonful will often effect an entire cure. During the winter of 1839, rising of one thousand families employed this remedy in the city of New York. The consequence was, that the number of deaths among children was reduced to less than one half the usual number, as may be seen by the city inspector's report of deaths.

In order to give the reader some idea of the efficacy of this Balsam, and how extensively it is used, we here introduce the monthly report of the cures it performed in the month of May, 1839, as furnished us by the agent, and published in the New York Sun.

Monthly Report of the cures performed by Dr. B. D. Allen's Balsam of Hoarhound, Liverwort and Pleurisy Root during the month of May. It has cured and completed the cure of

OPINIONS OF THE MEDICAL FACULTY.

At a meeting of the Medical Society of Washington County, the following Resolution was unanimously passed:
